

TRADES ON TRACK

NS TRADE SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Eligibility Requirements

To be considered, candidates must comply with the following requirements:

- Enrolled in a post-secondary educational/training institution and pursuing a trade related to the railway industry. Primary focus includes trades schools, community colleges, technical or vocational schools, railway training & certification programs, dual enrollment programs, 2 yr transitional programs to universities.
- Eligible States: Alabama, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia.
- Pursuing training related to a career in the railway industry. This includes but is not limited to the following: Locomotive Engineers, Conductors, Track and Signal Maintenance, Mechanical and Equipment Maintenance (e.g., Diesel Mechanics, Railcar Technicians, Machinists), Welding, Electrical Engineers and/or Technicians, Safety and Operations (e.g., Dispatchers), Railroad Construction, and Heavy Equipment Operators.
 - Explore potential career options in the railroad industry at: Norfolk Southern Careers
- Employees and/or spouses or dependents of employees of Norfolk Southern are not eligible to apply. Please refer to Norfolk Southern's Thoroughbred Scholarship Program if this applies to you.